KING GOEBEL SPEAKS.

BILL'S Eloquent Oration at the New Central Last Night.

WORDS THAT WILL LIVE LONG.

Bill Goebel, surnamed the King, who stole the nomination and is going to try his hand at stealing the Governorship, spoke at Mt. Olivet yesterday.

To counteract the effect of Hon. John Young Brown's speech in this city Monday, several of Goebel's lieutenants went out to Mt. Olivet and hauled him into town last night.

He was met by a brass band and several other wind instruments and escorted to the New Central.

The street was filled with dust and electric lights, when the Hon. Thomas D. Slattery appeared upon the balcony and in a very neat speech introduced his Niba, who was cheered with a cheer.

With his coat of mail buttoned up to the throat with buttons, the eminent statesman bowed to the crowd and spoke a speech; and this was what he said:

"Individuation of the City of Maysville: I am too honest to talk. I will come again and do that little thing. Good night."

And then he took a seat, the hoodlums booted a boot, sensible men damed a dam— and the beheading of the eminent statesman wondred what in thunder they had hired the band for anyway."

Bishop Fitzgerald decided to continue the charges against all the Ministers who used tobacco until the General Conference in Chicago. Some of the Ministers who were charged with being tobacco smokers were highly indignant over the charges preferred and claimed spike work.

A resolution was adopted, by a unanimous vote of the Conference, requesting President McKinley to use his influence with the United States to secure the pardon and release of Captain George A. Dreyfus.

A company of capitalists of Columbus and Cincinnati have organized under the name of the State of Ohio Co., with a view of building an electric street railway from Columbus to Portsmouth. The capital stock is $100,000, and the length of the road will be 10 miles.

The gross earnings of this whole system for the month were $2,166,192.

It represents the grand return for services rendered the public. It is not extortion, nor is it robbery. The rates for travel and transportation have been steadily declining for years, declining just in proportion as the service has improved and the business has increased.

It is said there should be a maximum rate fixed by law; maximum rates are so fixed by the highest law known to man, and to the road, fixed in the very charter that gives it existence.

But no road is wide enough to exact these maximum rates, and vast distances in size were not even dreamt of when the charter was granted, and today they are less than one-fourth what the charter permits.

The local railroad companies will compete with each other, with oppression, with distortion, with dictation from demagogues; it has followed the law of self-interest and has been made in obedience to the law of competition, while no monopoly can have such a composition of place with place of product with produce.

The Evening Post does not assert that all its rates are just or wise, but it does assert that they are the result of approach, justice, and wisdom under competition that every road would under the arbitrary action of politicians who make common cause with such railroad wrecks as William Goebel.

The local railroad companies will compete with each other, with oppression, with distortion, with dictation from demagogues; it has followed the law of self-interest and has been made in obedience to the law of competition, while no monopoly can have such a composition of place with place of product with produce.

Consumers are to be protected.

As a matter of fact for months little or nothing went to them and for years not a dollar went to the stockholders.

Out of the $2,166,000 received two-thirds, or $1,435,000, was consumed in operating expenses.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY. FOUR NEW CASES.

James Forsythe Married Miss Ollie Simpson Against Her Father's Wish.

THEY Eloped from Home Saturday.

When the Father Learned of the Wedding He Armed Himself and Went to Forsyhe's Home.

He Badly Wounded His Son-in-Law, Killed the Father, and was Prevented from Shooting His Daughter — Simpson Then Put a Bullet in His Brain.

LONGVIEW, Tex., Sept. 13.—Panola county, and especially Beaverville, is excited over a terrible tragedy. The trouble started with the marriage of Jas. Forsythe, a prominent young man, and Miss Ollie Simpson, a belle of the neighborhood. It seems that Forsythe did not have the approval of his great father, Andrew Simpson, for the hand of his daughter, but, with several young men in the neighborhood, he succeeded in eloping with the young lady and they were married Saturday night. This so angered the old gentleman, that when he learned of the wedding Monday evening he saddled up his horse and loaded a double-barreled shotgun and took his pistol, declaring he would kill the whole party concerned. As he rode up to the house he was met by a law fleeing through the orchard. He brought him down with seven buckshot in the groin, leaving him for dead. He then rode toward the house. King H. Forsythe, the father of James, came out unarmed to see what the trouble was and was instantly killed with a load of buckshot in the abdomen. Simpson then dismounted and ran into the house with his pistol drawn, demanding his daughter, but the mother of young Forsythe ran between them and held his pistol until the girl was helped away. Simpson then walked out to the front gate, put the pistol to his forehead, killing himself instantly. Young Forsythe is desperately wounded but may recover. All stores in Beaverville are closed and business in general is suspended on account of the tragedy.

President Loubet, However, Will Not Be His Protagonist Until After the Meeting of the Council De Reversion.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Chronicle claims to have good authority for the statement that Dreyfus will be pardoned, although President Loubet will not exercise his prerogative until after the meeting of the council de reversion adds that Capt. Bavais and Maj. Breton were the only two members of the court-martial who voted for acquittal and it was Capt. Piatoff who insisted upon the proviso regarding extraneous circumstances.

GREAT FESTIVALS

The Dread Yellow Fever Still Lingers in the City of New Orleans.

NO DEATHS WERE REPORTED TUESDAY.

The Health Board at a Meeting Declined Not to Quarantine Against Other Infected Points.

Vicksburg, Natchez and More Prominent Towns of Western Mississippi are Forcing the Large Louisiana Towns to Quarantine Against New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—Four new cases of fever were announced by the state board of health Tuesday, three of which have been under supervision since their first day. No deaths reported.

At a meeting of the board Tuesday morning it was determined not to quarantine against infected points. There would be no reason for such a course, inasmuch as Mississippi has pretty generally closed her doors against this city, and Texas and Alabama are bent on maintaining their quarantines. Vicksburg, Natchez and more prominent towns of Western Mississippi are forcing the large Louisiana towns to quarantine against New Orleans although the Louisiana state board has taken no action. Monroe was warned Tuesday that unless she quarantined against New Orleans, Vicksburg would quarantine her. This policy will be detrimental to business interests, for there are few towns in Louisiana which would quarantine unless forced to do so. There have been only seven cases of fever here altogether and the city was never isolated.

The manifesto of Senator Jimines proclaims that the government demands a strict honesty and equity. He calls for the present tariff duties, advocates a strict gold basis and is in favor of the withdrawal of the present circulating national coin and paper money. He also recommends the favoring of immigration and full guarantees to citizens and foreigners and improvements of roads, ports and public works.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Dr. Brenner, health officer of Savannah and a noted authority, after a close inspection of Port Tampa city, wired Savannah Tuesday not to institute quarantine, as there is absolutely no danger. Dr. Horser reports from Miami that there is nothing suspicious there, nor has there been a case, except that of the refugee from Key West, who was isolated in the bay. There is not a suspicious case on the main land of Florida.

NO SECRET ALLIANCE.

The United States Has Not Foraken the Father and Example of the Fathers of the Republic.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 13.—In a letter to Chairman Smith of the republican state executive committee, Hon. John Hay, secretary of state, makes this emphatic statement regarding the alleged secret alliance between England and the United States:

"There is no alliance with England nor with any other power under heaven except those known and published to the world, the creation of ordinary international friendships and agreements in the ratio of fifty to one, and it is understood that Senator Jimines intends to repudiate a certain part of the issue, it is not unlikely that some trouble will arise. In any event an official announcement showing precisely what is to be done is anxiously awaited by business houses."

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT.

The New York Multi-Millionaire Died at His Home From Cerebral Hemorrhage His Fifty-Sixth Year.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Cornelius Vanderbilt, the head of the Vanderbilt family, died at his residence in this city at 6:45 o'clock Tuesday morning from a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Vanderbilt was in his 56th year. No physician was in attendance. The attack was very sudden and entirely unexpected, and it was impossible to reach any physician before death occurred. Dr. Francis Delafield, who had been attending Mr. Vanderbilt, arrived at the residence. Mr. Vanderbilt's death had occurred.

Vanderbilt's children, Gladys and Reginald, are in Newport, R. I.

Many erroneous statements were made concerning the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Vanderbilt, and Senator Chauncey M. Depew gave the following statement last Tuesday afternoon:

"Mr. Vanderbilt left Newport Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the purpose of attending a meeting of the directors of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad which was to be held Tuesday evening. He was feeling as well as usual and had no premonition of approaching death. He reached this city about 9 o'clock Monday night, was driven his home immediately and went to bed about 10 o'clock. He awoke at about 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning, 5 o'clock and complained of feeling very ill. He called his wife and she immediately sent for a physician. Mr. Vanderbilt died within a few minutes and before any physician arrived. Dr. Delafield, who had been attending him, when he awoke pronounced the cause of death to be cerebral hemorrhage. Because death was so sudden the coroner was notified and there will be a formal inquest.

"There will be a meeting of the Vanderbilt lines next Thursday to pass appropriate resolutions of respect to Mr. Vanderbilt. All the members of the family have either called in to pay their respects or are disposing of their affairs.
